

Lingue e Linguaggi

- About

Publication Home > Archives > Volume 72 \(2025\) - Special Issue

Volume 72 (2025) - Special Issue

Fulltext version

Translation as a Site of Agency and Activism. Acts of Resistance and Change Eliana Maestri, Eleonora Federici, Giulia Giorgi	Details	PDF	1-254
Title Page	Details	PDF	1-2
Table of Contents	Details	PDF	3
Translation as a Site of Agency and Activism. Acts of Resistance and Change Eliana Maestri, Eleonora Federici, Giulia Giorgi	Details	PDF	5-14
Militant Translation. Towards a Definition of a Situated Concept María Escobar-Aguilar	Details	PDF	15-40
Sarah Austin's Transnational Advocacy for National Education in Nineteenth-Century Europe Claudia Capancioni	Details	PDF	41-65
Avances y resistencias en la introducción de la perspectiva de género en el aula de traducción. Una experiencia docente Lupe Romero	Details	PDF	67-88
Constructing Activist Translation in History. Women Translators' Activist Engagement in Austria and Germany, 1871-1918 Julia Kölbl	Details	PDF	89-115
Looking for Feminist Translators. Translators and the Creation of a Feminist Genealogy of Theories and Practices Eleonora Federici	Details	PDF	117-134
Ecotranslation, Artvocacy and Care. A Creative Response to Climate Change Communication Eliana Maestri	Details	PDF	135-166
The Performative and Transformative Site of Homosexuality in Call Me by Your Name. Translating Queer Fuck into Chinese Ray Wang	Details	PDF	167-193

Translation as Regeneration. On the Works of Paulette Nardal, Véronique Tadjo and Werewere Liking

Nataša Raschi

Details PDF

195-207

Translating into Italian Charlotte Perkins Gilman's Herland (1915)

C. Bruna Mancini

Details PDF

209-229

Empires of the Everyday. Poetry as Translation of Empire

Anna Lee-Popham

Details PDF

231-253